

is proud to be hosting
 two Local Authors for a Book Signing Event
 Saturday, January 8th
 12:00pm - 4:00pm

Drinda Jean

A student of spiritual truth and an explorer of sacred sites, Drinda Jean is the great-granddaughter of a Spiritualist Medium and is an ordained minister. For more than three decades she has counseled individuals, couples, and groups about relationships and forgiveness.

Drinda also has extensive experience in management consulting, training, and business ownership.

Paul Stein

received a degree in biology from the University of San Francisco. The developer of a rainbow trout hatchery, he became the Chief Deputy Director of the California Department of Fish & Game. He served two terms as County Supervisor and maintains strong ties in the California political landscape. Paul lives and writes from his ranch along the Mokelumne River in Calaveras County.

Once Upon A Time on the Square
 Billie B. Kane, Proprietor

401 Town Square Road, Copperopolis, CA 95228 Highway 4 & Little John Road
 T:(209) 785-6828 F:(209) 785-2665 ouat@caltel.com www.ouatcts.com